

Accommodation

For people staying for longer periods of time, we can assist you to find housing off-campus. There are free shuttle buses from a number of locations serving the campus. Off-campus housing is recommended for those staying long-term as you generally get better value for your money with off-campus apartments.

The campus dormitories are located in the International Hotel, the same building classes are held in. Ethernet connections are available in the dormitories, at an additional cost of approximately 100 RMB per month.
